GIO NIEVES

GAY, ENGINEER... COMEDIAN?

Gio's a quirky, sassy comedian born and raised in Puerto Rico, now calling San Diego home.

You can catch him cracking jokes at venues across the city, where he uses his day-to-day observations, mental health journey, and life as a gay engineer as the secret sauce behind his comedy. He uses a mix of sharp wit and playful sass to bring you an entertaining show!

When not on stage, he spends his 9-to-5 balancing his ability of getting things done with his ability to tolerate others. Getting a funny bone was key for that second part...
